We review de novo the district court's interpretation of a statute and review the court's factual findings for clear error. Smith v. Cty. of L.A., 608 F.3d 382, 386 (9th Cir. 2010). We conclude that the district court properly construed the Act and that the court's findings of fact are not clearly erroneous. 1. We agree with the district court's reading of the Act that defines a "health care facility" as "a physical structure primarily engaged in providing diagnostic or therapeutic health care services." Nev. Rev. Stat. § 449.205(3) (emphasis added). The petitioners argued that because the Sedway facility was primarily a behavioral health center, the facility was not a health care facility within the meaning of the Act. We disagree with that contention. First, the Nevada legislature has granted the director of the department authority to administer and enforce the Act. Nev. Rev. Stat. § 449.220(1). We defer to the director's interpretation of the Act, and we conclude that the Sedway facility is a health care facility within the meaning of the Act. Second, we reject the argument that "primarily" means "exclusively" or "almost exclusively." The Act does not contain that limiting language. 2. The district court properly concluded that, as a factual matter, Sedway is a "place of health care." The petitioners argue that this conclusion does not comport with the Act's legislative intent. We disagree. The Nevada legislature passed the Act in response to a perceived epidemic of residential seclusion and restraint in the state, and the legislature found that "such practices
